Call for Papers

March 11 – March 13, 2021

Virtual Conference

The Central Slavic Conference is pleased to invite scholars from all disciplines working in Slavic, Eurasian, and East European studies to submit proposals for panels, individual papers, and roundtables at its annual meeting from March 11-13, 2021. Sessions will be held on Thursday afternoon, Friday afternoon and Saturday.

In a departure from past practice, this conference will be entirely virtual and will not take place at the Missouri Athletic Club and Hotel in St. Louis, as happened in recent years. We will leverage the virtual platform with the aim of generating dynamic exchanges in new and exciting ways.

Founded in 1962 as the Bi-State Slavic Conference, the Central Slavic Conference now encompasses seven states and is the oldest of the regional affiliates of ASEES (Association for Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Studies). Scholars from outside the region and from around the world are welcome.

Proposals for papers, panels, and roundtables should be submitted by email to CSC President Charles Allen at russky22@hotmail.com no later than January 15, 2021. Early proposals are strongly encouraged. All proposals should include:

- Participant name, affiliation, and email contact information;
- For individual paper presentation: title and description (100 words minimum);
- For panels: panel title + above information for each participant and discussant (if applicable);
- For roundtables: roundtable title and participant information.

As in recent years, the CSC will dedicate a separate portion of the conference to undergraduate research presentations. Undergraduate participants must provide the name and contact details of the faculty member who is supporting them.

Conference fees are 25 dollars for faculty and 10 dollars for graduate students and undergraduates.

Timberlake Memorial Graduate Paper Prize

Graduate students who present at the CSC Annual Meeting are invited to participate in the Charles Timberlake Graduate Paper Prize competition. Dedicated to the memory of Charles Timberlake as a teacher and mentor, the prize carries a cash award.

Please join us for what promises to be an engaging event. The CSC exists to encourage new talent in a supportive, collegial atmosphere. Be a part of the CSC's amazing journey.

Sincerely,

Charlie Allen
CSC President
